ARAB BANK
VAULTS OPENED
NAZARETH, Tuesday (Itm).
The vaults of the Arab National Bank here were opened today by a committee established for that purpose and L.P.2,600 in Palestine Currency, 800 Syrian and Lebanese pounds, Mandatory Pounds and a gold bracelet were found.

The committee was composed of representatives of the Custodian of Abandoned Property, the Military Governor, a Government accountant, the Receiver of Companies and the former treasurer of the Bank, now resident in Nazareth, in whose possession the keys were held. The money and the Bank fixtures and fittings were handed by the Receiver to the Custodian.
The Bank was ordered wound up by the Receiver last year.

It is understood that Barclays Bank here holds some LP.30,000 worth of accounts frozen in the account of the Arab National Bank.

Money Confiscated At Lydda Airport
LYDDA AIRPORT, Tuesday (Itm). Several hundred pounds of local currency in IL.5 and IL.10 notes were confiscated here today when found in the possession of passengers arriving by air. No action was taken against the passengers concerned.

In searches of arriving and departing passengers and airport personnel during the past 24 hours, 15,000 French francs, hundreds of dollars and a large quantity of Sterling were found.

U.N. STAFF SEE EYAN ON SEARCHES
TEL AVIV, Tuesday. Representatives of the U.N. Observer Team based in Jerusalem called at Hakiya yesterday for talks with Mr.
Walter Eyan, Director-General of the Foreign Ministry, on searches of all persons crossing through the Mandel-baum Gate in Jerusalem for currency smuggling.

The observers and U.N.
Staff members are among those who are continually crossing from Israel to Jordan, in the course of their duties.

The reasons for the searches and the necessity of preventing currency smuggling during the present exchange of old for new banknotes was explained to the observers.

MEAT RATION MAY HAVE BEEN LOST
Jerusalemites who did not receive a meat ration last week may not receive it this week, a Ministry of Commerce spokesman said in Jerusalem yesterday. The Jerusalem Food Controller had twice asked Acting Mayor E.
Elashar to settle the dispute with the striking porters, but nothing came of these requests, it was said.

A 400-ton shipment of meat arrived in Haifa yesterday and another 1,000 tons are scheduled to leave Jerusalem today, it was said.

The same distribution of the meat ration is to end in 10 days, and the distribution of fat is being hastened, the spokesman said. The 200-gram ration for children under 12 and the 300-gram ration are to be distributed soon.

Biblical Ceremony Being Revived

The ancient ceremony of Hakheil, which was observed in Biblical times at the end of the Sabbatical year by a pilgrimage to Jerusalem to hear the Torah read, is to be revived by the Ministry for Religious Affairs.

Mr. Z. Warhaftig, Deputy Minister, and Mr. B. Z. Cahana, Director General of the Ministry, told the press yesterday that although there was no evidence in the Jewish traditional literature indicated that the ceremony was observed.

The chief basis for this claim is contained in Deuteronomy, 31:10-12 and is as follows:
"And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, in the anniversary of the year of the release, in the Feast of Tabernacles, when all Israel is come to appear before the Lord thy God in the place which he shall choose, then shall read thine ears before all Israel in their hearing. Gather the people together, men and women, and thy stranger that is in thy gate, and thy orphan and thy widow, and hear the word of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt live long days in the land which thou art to possess."

Observance Modernized
In an effort to modernize the observance, the Ministry officials stated that "certain alterations and additions" will be made.

The President of Israel will be requested to replace the Biblical King who once read from the Torah, to those assembled. The main prayer at the ceremony, which will be held at either the National Stadium or at the Sanhedria Tomb, will be for world peace.
Candles for the peace appeal will be lighted by representatives of Jewish communities in the Diaspora.

"Ten of thousands are expected to attend," they said, "and this is the principal reason why only a portion of the ceremony will be held at Mandela." The Government has allocated IL.5,000 for the ceremony, but additional funds are expected to be apported.

SPEED TEST OF MOBILIZATION
TEL AVIV, Tuesday. The military call-up notices by code words, which appeared in the press and were broadcast on the radio today, were part of the routine test of speed mobilization which has been in progress for some time, it was learned here today.

The mobilization plan calls for orders to report to be issued both "openly," by the publication of code-words, and "secretly" by dispatch riders or by telephone. Call-ups in recent weeks have been according to the "secret" system.

The present mobilization practice has no connection with the announced general mobilization, which will be held in the near future, and is completed before the Jewish New Year.

U.S. CITIZENS HERE MUST REGISTER
TEL AVIV, Tuesday (USIS).
All male American citizens in Israel between the ages of 18 and 35 must register for selective service between July 1 and 31, 1952, according to an announcement made here today by Mr. Scott George, U.S. Vice Consul.

The basis for the announcement is a proclamation issued by President Truman stating that all American males either visiting or residing in foreign countries must register under the terms of the Universal military Training and Service Act.
There is no indication in the proclamation that any of the new registrants actually will be called up for military service in the near future. They will be subject to the same draft quotas as all American citizens.

American living north of Haifa have been asked to call at the U.S. Consulate in Haifa to register. Those living south of Haifa should register at the Embassy in Tel Aviv, with the exception of residents of Jerusalem who should register at the U.S. Consulate General there.

Kfar Ofer Getting Permanent Homes

HAIFA, Tuesday.—Kfar Ofer, the "Indian Hunter" strike village, became a proud settlement today in Israel when the cornerstone of the first house of the permanent site was laid at seven o'clock this evening.

The villagers only a fortnight ago had struck outside the Jewish Agency because promises to build their village were not kept. Today they came out for a man at the ceremony today in Israel when the cornerstone of the first house of the permanent site
evening.

Mr. Y. Gorik, head of the Hof Hacamel Local Authorities, said that the new village had not been achieved by accident. The patience and firmness of the villagers had been decisive.

Since the settlers went on strike two weeks ago, the Jewish Agency has accomplished more in the village than it had in the two preceding years. Foundations for some of the 65 dwellings have already been dug and water pipes laid. The settlers are to receive a truck this week and a temporary road is to be made soon.

Villagers Will Build
The villagers themselves will do the building, which is expected to be completed by December, when each family will receive a five-dunam plot. There are about 800 dunams of cultivable land available near the village. The settlers are planning to develop the site as a summer resort and intend to attract Indian Jewish tourists to the scheme.

Mr. Y. Shapira, of the Ministry of Education, Mr. S. Sharar, of the Agency Settlement Department, and Mr. M. Juchman, village's Histraduti teacher, also spoke.

After "Shacharit" and Hashem, the villagers began a night of celebrations.

FOUR GROUPS ASK J.A.
FOR BETTER HOMES
TEL AVIV, Tuesday. Four delegations called today on Mr. A. Ziegler, Head of the Jewish Agency's Absorption Department here, and discussed with him the substitution of their present accommodation. Representatives of the Sakia and Rehovot, and have demanded the immediate allocation of land for the construction of wooden huts, while those from Hiriya and Kfar Ono asked for a speed-up in the construction of canvas huts.

They were informed that the delay was not due to budgetary difficulties, but more time was required by the Planning Council to plan the area.

Immigrant Farmers Will Receive Subsidies TEL AVIV, Tuesday.—With the relaxation of controls on vegetables and fruit, immigrant settlements under the care of the Jewish Agency will be assured of minimum prices and would be subsidized by the Ministry of Agriculture to the extent of 25 per cent, Mr. Haim Bar Ilan, Assistant Director of the Agency's Settlement Department, told the press here today. These settlements would be paid weekly for their produce, unlike other farmers who can afford to wait three to four months.

In an attempt to further improve the lot of new settlers, the Department had recently reached an agreement with the Ministry of Labour for the latter to invoke its powers to direct labour, to call upon old settlers to devote six months to instruct new immigrants in farming.

Soldier Shot Companion Is Fined One Pound
TEL AVIV, Tuesday.—A fine of IL.1, with a recommendation to President Weizmann to pardon the accused, was imposed by the Relieving President of the District Court, Judge Z. E.
Baker today, on Private Moshe Weinschal, charged with killing another soldier.

On January 20, 1950, Weinschal, while on guard duty somewhere in the south of Israel, shot at and killed Private Avraham Dangoor. Weinschal told the Court that he had received orders from his commanding officer on that particular night to shoot any unidentified person after a single challenge. Private Dangoor, who was standing in the darkened entrance of his barrack in the camp, did not answer his challenge, Weinschal said.

Passing judgment, Judge Baker said that the commanding officer's orders were illegal since it was inconceivable that a soldier on guard should shoot at an unarmed and unthreatening person, even though he might deem him to be an intruder or an intruder.

Mr. David Gasser, who appeared for the accused, claimed that his client had been punished for life by his moral suffering, an argument favourably received by the Court.

'Responsible Authorities' Must Help Solve Serious J'lem Unemployment Problem

The need for immediate action to "all the responsible authorities" to solve the admittedly serious unemployment problem in the capital was stressed last night at the semi-annual meeting of the Jerusalem Labour Exchange Council.

The meeting of the 21-member advisory body, which was on the whole free of the expected political polemics among the various party representatives, noted the sharp rise in the ranks of the workless during the past few months. It was generally agreed that the problem could be solved only if the Government, Municipality and National Institutions took special steps to employ the jobless.

Mr. M. Margalit, head of the Exchange, pointed out that the conference had been called a month earlier than scheduled because of the pressing problem. He reported that there were about 1,400 registered unemployed of whom about 4-500 were "total unemployed," with the remainder working part-time or registered as jobless for various other reasons.

He underlined the importance of starting up construction of the Popular Housing Scheme units and of immigrant housing projects, and of a major afforestation programme by the Jewish National Fund. The 108 men who were scheduled to start on this work this week have been on other related jobs until the problem of wages is settled. It is known that the Histraduti, which would like to see 800 men employed permanently on the project, is seeking a net wage of IL.3 daily, while the present wage is IL.2.600.

Mr. Margalit strongly attacked the Municipality for its failure to share responsibility in finding work for the unemployed.

It was also reported that an agreement between the Histraduti management and Sold State outstanding debts owed to the latter organization had not been reached and that the first work, which has been stalled for about a fortnight, will be resumed.

In the ensuing discussion, it was found that a surprising wide area of agreement existed among the Histraduti parties. Many representatives called upon the Histraduti to exert "real and stronger pressure" on the Government and Municipality. They also warned the employed to help the jobless by agreeing to work for less money.

H.U. Junior Staff Resume Their Strike
The junior teaching and scientific staff of the Hebrew University will resume their strike in Jerusalem today following a breakdown in salary negotiations yesterday.

A fortnight ago the junior teaching staff started a strike, but after one day agreed to enter into further negotiations. The new walkout was decided upon at a general meeting where the workers recommended to accept the recommendations made by the Government-appointed Committee on Coordination of Salaries of the Academic Staffs of Institutions of Higher Learning.

The workers charged that there was a IL.10 to IL.20 monthly difference between the offer and what they demanded. They also claimed not to have received "definite offers of grading for the existing staff," and that the Committee's recommendations, which would take several months to implement had no provision for interim payments.

The University stated that it had accepted the Committee's offer, which it noted, were higher than those made by a during previous negotiations with the staff.

TEACHERS WILL STRIKE
TEL AVIV, Tuesday.—Representatives of teachers without diplomas voted here tonight to strike on Thursday in protest against the Minister of Education and Culture's refusal to grant them equal wages with teachers who have diplomas. The vote was 400 to one.

The strike has been voted by the Teachers Association.

Gets Order Nisi In Exit Visa Case
Dr. Shmuel Lamberger, who was refused an exit visa received an order nisi from the High Court yesterday calling on the Minister of Interior to show cause why he should not permit the applicant to leave the country.

Claiming that if he lived in Austria for three months he would be able to retrieve his blocked bank account, Dr. Lamberger said that no reasons had been given for the refusal.

He also told the Court that a criminal investigation against him had been stopped as the result of the general amnesty in 1948.

Local Tax System Amended by Knesset

The system of municipal taxation was amended yesterday by the Knesset. Future taxpayers, however, assessed on the basis of rent, but the new law will permit municipalities to choose between assessments based on categories of dwellings or those calculated on the basis of assessed value.

This change will make taxation more equitable. At present, tenants who obtained flats in recent years at high rents pay much higher taxes than neighbours living in identical flats who were fortunate enough to rent them years ago before rents began to spiral.

Landlords will continue to pay rates based upon income from rent. Another amendment provides that persons owning their own flats should pay taxes calculated on the basis of the assessed rental value at the time they occupied the apartments.

Other measures provide that agricultural property in urban areas shall be taxed at rural property rates. Industrial sites may be taxed either on the basis of the area or the assessed value.

Appeals to civil courts against tax assessments are provided for the Appeals Committee and the final appeal to the civil courts will be made by the latter Committee, which will be made through the House.

Knesset Reinstates Rabbinical Courts
Seven rabbinical courts and 50 rabbinical judges were reinstated for one year by Knesset action yesterday.

The bill, as submitted by Mr. Moshe Ussis (Hapoel Ha-Mizrabi) on behalf of the Legislation Committee had not fixed any limits upon tenure and was designed to remove doubts about jurisdiction. The House, however, passed a minority motion by Miss Ada Maimon (Mapai) and Mr. Nahum Heit (General Zionists) extending the tenure for one year only. The motion received a 22-15 majority.

Miss Maimon said she was motivated by a desire to amend the legislation in order to provide for the inclusion of women in the rabbi-nical courts. She pointed out that the courts dealt mainly with matters of personal status and discriminated against women.

The rabbinical courts are in Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Haifa, Petah Tikvah, Rehovot, Tiberias and Safed. The presidents of the Religious Supreme Court are Chief Rabbi I. H. Herzog and B. Z. Uziel and the members are Rabbis Z. Frank, S. Brodt and O.
Hadaya.

Cables in Brief

Support for Israel
NEW YORK, Tuesday (INA).
—Robert F. Wagner, President of the U.S.A., declared that it will be his task to help create a climate of public opinion favourable to Israel's legitimate political and economic needs.

He pledged every effort in mobilizing resources of the U.S.A. behind the U.S.A.
Bond Drive. "Full encouragement must be afforded private initiative both here and in Israel," he said.

Progressives Welcome
Z.O.A. Resolution
NEW YORK, Tuesday (INA).
—The resolution on affiliation adopted by the Zionist Organization of America was welcomed today by Rabbi Max Nusbaum, Progressive leader in a statement with which Louis Lipsey and Ezra Shapiro fully concurred.

Dr. Nusbaum described the "resolution on non-affiliation" and quoted a section of the resolution which said that the Z.O.A. is not affiliated by party with any other Zionist group or party and is bound by no party discipline.

Dr. Nusbaum also declared that the section of the resolution dealing with sister organizations in Israel "is practically identical with the resolution adopted by our region," and expressed the hope that the incoming administration would strictly adhere to the letter and spirit of this resolution.

A warning that the possibility of a change of Government in the U.S. following the forthcoming presidential elections, may affect the American attitude toward Israel, was voiced by Dr. Israel Goldstein, President of the World Confederation of Zionists, at the final session of the Z.O.A. convention.

American Zionists must be prepared to make new efforts to assure the sympathy of a new Administration toward Israel, he said. Emphasizing the seriousness of the situation, Dr. Goldstein proposed calling an immediate special conference of all former presidents of the Z.O.A., together with the newly elected President, Rabbi Irving Miller.
